The Professional Development Institute Presents

"Keeping the Options Open" II Workshop 2010

June 14-15, 2010 at Regis University, Denver, CO

Information & Registration KOOII

We are again offering KOO II, a workshop designed for high school counselors with several years of college counseling experience and/or KOO I alumni. Learn more about college counseling from the experts: Our faculty are regionally and nationally known practitioners who will share their extensive knowledge with you on an interactive and small-group basis. This two-day workshop will provide new resources and opportunities for networking, as well as two graduate credits from Adams State College. Come prepared to participate!

KOO II participants will be asked to read a common book, and our "KOO Book Club" will spend time discussing relevant national and local issues. Come prepared with your school profile and letters of recommendation: Our faculty will give direct feedback on how you can improve your college guidance program.

Planned Workshop Content:

- Challenges Facing Counselors
- School Profile and Transcript
- Advanced Financial Aid
- Technology and Social Networking
- Advanced Letters of Recommendation
- Advanced List Building
- Case Studies
- And Much More!
